Postlude

All baptized persons are normally invited to receive communion. Here are words from the Book of Common Prayer which could be adapted to our situation today:

If a person desires to receive the Sacrament, but, by reason of extreme sickness or physical disability, [or natural disaster, or pandemic,] is unable to eat and drink the Bread and Wine, the Celebrant is to assure that person that all the benefits of Communion are received, even though the Sacrament is not received with the mouth. (BCP, 457)

Canon Jody Howard

Let us express our gratitude to Canon Jody Howard for coming among us to preach and celebrate the Eucharist during our vicar's vacation. He is busy about the diocese as much is going on right now, and we are glad he is able to be with us today.

Bible Study

Bible studies will be put on pause until October 13. But you may still find the lessons at The Lectionary Page for the next two Sundays. I look forward to resuming these meetings when I return.

Fr. Joe

Blessing of the Animals will be next Sunday, October 11 at 1:00 p.m.

In-Person Worship at Grace

We are continuing in person worship until further notice. A statement of procedures and safety measures for us to follow has been sent to our email list. The standards include wearing some kind of face covering, keeping a minimum of 6 feet away from other people, and not having congregational singing. If you need to avoid using stairs, please come and go by way of the parish hall; otherwise, unless you have duties to discuss with the liturgical or technical team, please enter and leave the church by the red door. The celebrant will greet the people outside under the maple tree after the service. We have suspended the traditional coffee hour for now.

If you plan to attend in person, please write Susan Austin (sjanawicz@aol.com) by Thursday at noon next week. We want all our members and visitors to be safe, stay well, and to be around when this disease is no longer troubling our land.

The Facebook Live broadcast of the 10:00 a.m. service will continue from the Grace Church, Spring Hill's Facebook group page, and you can find it later on our church's YouTube account.

If you are a visitor, we are glad to have your with us this Sunday. Reach out to us at the email addresses listed below.

Meals on Wheels Outreach Opportunity

Patricia Keenan at the South Central Human Resources Agency has asked for volunteers to deliver pre-cooked meals to senior citizens in Spring Hill and north Columbia. Call Richard Hawarah for details.

Vicar's Vacation

I will return from vacation this week on Wednesday. We welcome Canon Jody Howard among us as our supply priest today. He is a friend and our canon to the ordinary. Another way to say that is that he is the bishop's assistant. I would ask you to welcome him warmly, but safety precludes many normal means of showing warmth. You can smile, but your face should be covered most of the time. You can give an elbow bump, I suppose; but no hugs or hand shakings. There won't even be any food, though someone might manage to sneak him a donut after church anyway. Just please be good to one another, as I know you will. He is being very generous to help us out.

Disaster Relief

Our people have had far more than their share of hurricanes, pestilence, and wildfires. If you would like to contribute to the relief efforts for any or all of these disasters, you may do so through Episcopal Relief and Development. (Support.episcopalrelief.org/disasters)

To make a contribution to Grace Church, please use the code given below in this bulletin or mail your offering in to the office.
